When Does a Foreign-language Magazine Cease to be a Magazine?

by Rob Alderson of MagCulture

If you've ever worked in magazines, you've been asked The Question. Maybe by a well-meaning relative struggling for conversation, maybe in an interview, maybe (and most panic-inducingly) on stage during a Q&A session or a panel discussion:

"Which magazines do you most admire? Which titles do you think are doing interesting things at the moment?"

I've asked it myself - I've answered it at least 50 times, with varying degrees of honesty.

1. Name something pretty mainstream.

Say The New Yorker. Say Wired. Say The Evening Standard's Friday magazine EM. This is a good way of showing you're not too cool for school and that you're all for credit where credit's due. Some answers are so uncool they might even sound quite cool. What is it about the Evening Standard magazine this guy likes so much? I must remember to pick one up...

2. Name a well-known indie title.

Here we're talking answers like The Gentlewoman, Kinfolk, and The Gourmand. Magazines that have been around for a few years and which radiate quality across both content and design. Best accompanied with a little shrug-I know it's obvious but what can you do?
